In New York on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Minnie Deems, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Deems, was married to Mr. Verderer, a distinguished lawyer of Augusta, Ga. The ceremony was performed in the Church of the Strangers, and the father of the bride officiated. The edifice was literally crammed with members of the congregation and their friends. Many well-known Southerners were among the audience. Appropriate music was played on the organ, and anthems suitable to the interesting occasion were sung by the choir. The bride, who is very lovely, was handsomely attired in white, with a long lace veil and orange blossoms. The bridegroom was dressed in black, and was manly and handsome. The services immediately concluded with the marriage were simple and impressive. The Rev. Dr. Deems's voice faltered as he pronounced the blessing, at the same time ecclesiastical and parental, and the bride shed tears. After the ceremony the Doctor embraced the bride with deep feeling, and grasped his new son-in-law warmly by the hand. So peculiarly solemn and impressive were the circumstances attending the ceremony that the audience were visibly affected. After the marriage the newly united couple started for Georgia. The bride presents were numerous and valuable. Among them was a pair of diamond-set sleeve buttons, presented by Mrs. Commodore Vanderbilt.

Rev. Robert Collyer relates the following anecdote in illustration of the poverty and struggles often encountered and borne by the poor curates in London: I had, in the summer of 1871, a talk with a clergyman in the Church of England, who was then rector of a church which gave him a very fair living; but before this he had been a curate in London, with a very large family (as ministers generally have), and an income of less than a hundred pounds ($500) a year—not more than eighty ($400) if my memory serves me. It was desperate work, he said, to make ends meet—so desperate that there came a time when there was not a penny or a crust left in the house, or a pint of milk for the bairns. "Then," he said, "I sat down to think what I should do; and when I made up my mind about the course I must take, I was as ever this wife—as noble and true a woman as ever this world heard of—and said, 'my dear, we have done our very best, and this is the end. Now I will tell you what we must do. We are citizens of London, have paid our rates and taxes right along, and are entitled to all the help there is. We will go to the poorhouse to-morrow morning, and ask them to take us in. We have a perfect right to go there, and we will go.' She said, 'That is right,' and began at once to get ready to go to the poorhouse, but that day I got a letter from some one, enclosing five pounds ($25). There was no signature; I don't know to this day who sent it, but that five pounds saved us from taking that step, and tided us over to quarter day."

The Straight-Out Ticket.

The "straight-out" ticket which was placed in nomination on Saturday morning is formally withdrawn. This prompt action gives us especial gratification; not so much because it is a striking evidence that the course of THE NEWS meets with public approval, as because it relieves us of the necessity of discussing and arguing irritating questions which four years of patience and conciliation have only partly set at rest. There are now three tickets in the field: the Bowen ticket, the Mackey ticket and Hobson's Choice. One of these tickets will be elected. Fellow-citizens! if you value peace, if you hope for progress, if you desire reform, rally at the polls on Wednesday morning and cast your votes for Hobson's Choice.

A Word in Season.

Conservative citizens of Charleston! For the first time since the adoption of the reconstruction constitution, you have an opportunity of securing a substantial improvement in the character of your county officers and your representatives in the General Assembly of the State. In 1868, and again in 1870, you made a gallant fight for reform, but were decisively defeated. The Republican vote, solidly against you, was more than you could overcome. A county election is again upon you, and finds you without time for organization, or money for the prosecution of the canvass. No Conservatives, therefore, can be elected. But you can accomplish a great work. You can elect the best men who have been nominated by the opposing Radical factions. It would need seven or eight thousand Conservative votes to elect a Conservative ticket. Three or four thousand votes will elect Hobson's Choice—a better ticket than was elected in 1868 or in 1870, a better ticket than you can obtain in any other way.

Is this worth doing? The News says emphatically, yes! The slightest gain is worth having; for it marks the turn of the tide. Hitherto the Radical tickets have gone from bad to worse. Now the Conservatives have a chance to elect a few good candidates, and a number of others who, whatever their shortcomings, are decidedly superior to their fellows—who will be elected, if the Conservatives do not go to the polls and plump for Hobson's Choice.

Think of the way in which the affairs of the County have been managed. Ponder the fearful waste of money—all of which is wrung from you in taxes. Think of the character of the men who have made laws for you, and have been your spokesmen in the Legislature of the State. You have it in your power now to elect County officers who will not steal, nor allow others to steal. You have it in your power to elect a Legislative ticket which is white as snow in comparison with the blackness of the delegation which will be chosen if you fold your hands and idly stay at home.

Fellow-citizens! You cannot afford to be controlled by sentimental considerations. You cannot allow the Mackeyites or Bowenites to walk over the course. It lies with you to draw the fangs of the Radical viper. This can be done, and only be done, by voting for Hobson's Choice.

Vote at Least for These.

Two important amendments to the constitution of the State are to be voted on text Wednesday. One of them changes the time of holding the State election, causing it to be held, every second year, on the Tuesday following the first Monday in November. The other amendment prohibits the General Assembly from increasing the public debt, without the approval of two-thirds of the qualified voters of the State given at a general election.

As a result of the adoption of the first amendment the State election and Presidential election, every fourth year, will take place on the same day. This will be a saving to the laborer and his employer, in decreasing the length of the canvass, and diminishing the loss of time at political meetings and in going to the polls.

The other amendment absolutely bars the creation of any new debt for at least two years, and then a new debt cannot be created unless two-thirds of the voters are in favor of it. It will be said that this is locking the door when the steed is stolen, but there are other steeds in the public stable. That the debt, legitimate and illegitimate, is fifteen or sixteen millions is no reason why the Legislature should be allowed to run it up to twenty or thirty millions.

Both the Moses and the Tomlinson Radicals profess to be in favor of the adoption of the constitutional amendments. But every Conservative in the State should cast his vote for them. Whatever difference of opinion there may be as to Moses and Tomlinson, as to Mackey and Bowen, there can be no difference of opinion as to the advisability of sustaining the Radicals in their first effort to reduce the cost and excitement of elections, and to prevent their own party from stealing, by wholesale, the money of the people.

—Very shrewd politicians the Conservatives of Charleston must be if, when the two Radical factions are fighting like cats and dogs, they cannot secure some advantages out of their disagreements. That is what we propose to do. Vote for Hobson's Choice.

Pick Your Flint and Try Again!

The old adage that "a lame excuse is better than none," is compassionately suggested by THE NEWS as offering a plausible explanation of the following eccentric paragraph which is found in the Courier of Saturday:

"Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Simons, as members of the State Executive Committee for Charleston County, immediately after the meeting of that committee at Columbia, joined in writing a letter to the County Chairman, asking that a Convention of the people of the county should be called. Mr. Dawson, one of the editors of THE CHARLESTON NEWS, the third member of the State Committee for this county, refused to sign the letter. This failure on the part of Mr. Dawson to sign the request to make the call prevented united action on the part of the committee."

The County Chairman spoken of by the Courier is the Democratic County Chairman, and the proposed convention was a Democratic Convention. A simple convention of "the people of this county" would have included the whole Radical party, and might have put the callers of the convention in the predicament of the unwary engineer who was hoist with his own petard. This kind of convention was out of the question.

It is proper, however, to say that Mr. Dawson opposed the calling of either a Democratic or Conservative Convention. A Conservative ticket could not be expected to win, and the ten days which remained, before the election came on, were not sufficient for the organization of a movement sufficiently strong to be decently defeated. That his refusal to sign the "letter to the County Chairman" prevented the holding of the proposed convention, Mr. Dawson is far too modest to suppose; and the Courier's hypothesis that the single negative vote of Mr. Dawson outweighed the votes of the majority of the committee is anything but complimentary to Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Simons. THE NEWS is quite willing to take the responsibility of what it does, or leaves undone, but the Courier, in the endeavor to clear its own skirts, uses a boomerang which, in awkward hands, is far more likely to hit friendly shins than to crack a hostile crown.

—Want to vote for your neighbor, do you, because he is a gentleman whom you at least desire to compliment with a vote? That is all very well, but most people prefer to put their votes where they will tell. Vote for Hobson's Choice and you will secure a practical benefit, worth more than a compliment, for both your neighbor and yourself.

Hobson's Choice.

No man who is not a candidate upon the Mackey or the Bowen County ticket will be elected on Wednesday next. The independent tickets stand no chance; the stragglers cannot slip in. Between the Mackey and Bowen factions the Republican-vote is divided, and that vote is more than double the entire Conservative vote. A regularly nominated Convention ticket could not succeed, even if precisely as many Radicals voted for Mackey as for Bowen. Far less can volunteer tickets accomplish any good. It is a settled fact that every man who is elected on Wednesday will be found amongst the nominees of the Regular or the Bolting Radicals.

But the Conservatives hold the balance of power. They cannot poll a vote large enough to elect any man who is not sustained by one or the other of the Radical wings. They can, however, elect whichever candidates, upon the Radical tickets, are known to be the least objectionable to the people. It stands to reason that a ticket consisting of the best men on the two tickets must be superior to either of the straight Radical tickets. Such a ticket is Hobson's Choice. Every man upon it is a Bowen or a Mackey nominee, and, as a whole, it is vastly better than any ticket which has been elected in this county in the last four years. And it is better than either the Bowen ticket or the Mackey ticket; one of which tickets will sweep the field unless the Conservative voters support Hobson's Choice. It is that, or none!

—If the Conservatives fail to elect Hobson's Choice next Wednesday (which they won't) wouldn't it be perfectly true to tell them the next time they groan under the mal-administration of County affairs, that it serves them right?

Make Every Vote Count!

Even the crude political instincts of the negroes teach them better than to throw away their votes on candidates who haven't a ghost of a chance of being elected. Let the Conservatives who are in earnest, therefore, stop making up fanciful tickets, which might be all very well if things were vastly different from what they are, and vote solid for Hobson's Choice.

—There is a prospect now of a practical solution of all our social difficulties. The beginning of the end of the rule of the "tom rill on top" has begun. Vote for Hobson's Choice and Charleston will soon be a far more comfortable place to live in than it is now.
